I guess we've got the best."

WHY IS IT?

A Law That is Observed More in the Breach Than in its Observance

Under a recently enacted law the County Assessor and his Deputies are required to include in their report the number of births in the county during the year. The Assessor is largely dependent on the physicians of the county, who are required by law to make an annual report, but with one or two exceptions, treat the matter as a dead letter and do not comply with the mandate.

This is an important matter, and besides it is the law, and should be obeyed, and a failure to do so on the part of those to whom it is directed should incur the penalty attached just the same as any other infractor of the law.

It was put upon the statute books for a purpose, and that it does not conform to the ideas or wishes of a certain class is no reason why it should not be enforced.

A complete record of marriages, births and deaths would be an essential factor in aiding the law in many ways. In settling estates, tracing lineage and other matters of prime importance. Whose ever duty it is—Assessor or Health Officer—to see that the law is enforced, should no longer delay in seeing that it is complied with.

FROM HILL TO HILL

The Greatest Flood Ever Seen in the "Beautiful Ohio River," Which, Tradition Says, Occurred in 1773

Cincinnati Enquirer.

The people of the great Ohio Valley require now neither physician nor metaphysician, nor thoughts upon the spleen from the ancients, to tell them of the depressing effect upon the mind of such continuous darkness and dampness as they have of late experienced.

Now that we are in the midst of one of our fortunately infrequent seasons of flood, the people of many counties of Ohio and of several other states are finding sorely taxed the patience with which to gather fortitude for the endurance of the miseries and misfortunes that come with this recurrence of high water in the Ohio and its tributaries—of the "great fresh," as the pioneers called the floods of the Western rivers in the early days of the white man's observation of them.

The student of the history of "The Ohio Country" will find that the great uprisings of the "Beautiful river" excited the wonder of the very first white adventurers, as well as of the aborigines, whose traditions relating to great floods came to them. When the three McAfee brothers, from Botetourt county, Virginia, came down here in 1773, 15 years prior to the first settlement of Cincinnati, with the thought of actually making a home here "opposite the mouth of the Licking," they were driven off by a flood. They took to the river in canoes at Kanawha and came down upon a constantly rising flood. To use their own language, when they reached this point the river was "full from hill to hill." On the Cincinnati side this meant the then abrupt bank about a hundred feet South of the present Third street at Broadway. The oldest Indians spoke of that as the greatest flood they had heard of. It is believed that the stage that year (1773) was 12 feet higher than in 1832 or 1847.

That would mean a height of about 76 feet, or about four feet higher than that of the greatest actually recorded rise—that of 1884, February 14th.

Ashland had another big fire Saturday night, the men's furnishing store of Ben Josselson burning, at a loss of $10,000.

A suit to test the anti-pass law has been filed in the Federal Court at Louisville by Erasmus Motley and wife against the L. and N. Railway. They say they were in an L. and N. collision in 1871, and accepted annual life passes in lieu of damages. These passes have been cut off under the new law, and they seek to have them continued.

The Herald says Mr. Allan D. Cole was in Lexington Monday to confer with a local firm of attorneys in regard to a suit which will be brought in the Mason Circuit Court to recover a large amount of money on turnpike stocks which were sold to the state. Mr. Cole said that he was not ready to go into details about the suit, but that he thought it would be filed this spring.

The vehicle license law goes into effect at Newport Friday. Under the new law cities of the second class are permitted to collect a license from every kind of vehicle that uses the streets.

Strong pressure is being brought to prevent the abolishment of the Pension Agency at Louisville. Representative D. C. Edwards, who is interested in behalf of the Louisville Agency, says that he fears that it will be impossible to prevent the Senate from wiping out all of the Agencies, including the one at Louisville.

The Portsmouth Blade says Brakeman Harry Gibson, aged 28, living at Covington, suffered a compound fracture of both legs, a broken arm and scalp wound in the C. and O. wreck at Gray's Branch, near Greenup, Monday. A misinterpretation of orders or error in letting the express train into the block behind the freight, seems to have caused the accident.

AN extra session of Congress is now considered probable. The Fifty-ninth Congress adjourns March 4th and much work has to be finished in less than thirty working days.

GENERAL FUNSTON says a San Francisco bricklayer gets more than an army officer. Perhaps he is worth more than some army officers, and he doesn't talk so much about himself, says The Cincinnati Enquirer.

SENATOR JOSEPH W. BAILEY, the handsomest and most "dastangy" member of the Senate, will never again amount to a hill of beans as a Democratic Presidential possibility, and his influence as a National legislator will not amount to thirty cents. 23 is rung out clear for him.

NEARLY 7,000 lives lost and more than $500,000,000 worth of property destroyed—this is the havoc that marks last year's fire loss from San Francisco to New York. Every day of the year just ended, on the average, twenty lives and nearly $1,500,000 were sacrificed upon the altar of the fire god. Nowhere else in the world is the fire loss in bulk or pro rata anywhere near our own. The average loss is now $200,000,000 a year, and still no effective means are taken to check it.

THE American people have been discussing the Tariff for over a hundred years and are still at it, but Secretary Root insists their knowledge of the subject is limited as compared to that obtaining in other countries. That may be, but the Americans seem to be getting the most revenue out of it. Perhaps they know enough to do for all practical purposes.—Burlington "Hawkeye."

THE interpretation of the anti-pass feature of the rate bill by the Interstate Commerce Commission is that men employed by newspapers to assort newspapers on special trains may not be granted transportation. This rigid ruling of the Commission will eventually cause Congress to make a liberal amendment to the original bill allowing the railroads to exchange transportation with newspapers and to pass any person free they choose except officers of the Federal Government, State and municipalities.

THERE is much talk about the Republican standpatters, but do you also notice that on the present tariff status the Demmies, many millions of them, are "standing without being hitched," or words to that effect, and make very graceful standpatters—especially in the South? Under WILLIAM MCKINLEY and THEODORE ROOSEVELT party lines on this great economic question have become all but eliminated, and it is no longer politic or intelligent to damn the thing that has made the United States the wealthiest Nation on 'earth—Protection.

TESTIMONIALS

What Some of the Most Prominent Women and Men in This Vicinity Have to Say of The Celebrated Home Comfort Wrought Iron Cooking Ranges.

Wrought Iron Range Co., St. Louis, Mo.
 I have used a Home Comfort Range for the past twelve years and found it to be the most durable stove made. It does not consume one-half the fuel of an ordinary cast stove. Can say I would not take the price I paid for it and do without it.

Several hardware men tried to convince us that we could buy the same range for one-half the money, which we found untrue, and I don't think anyone could make a mistake in purchasing a Home Comfort Range. Very truly yours,
 Mr. and Mrs. RUFUS K. ROBINSON,
 Maysville, Ky.

Wrought Iron Range Co., St. Louis, Mo.
 I have used a Home Comfort Range for the past twenty-four years and have only had repairs once during this time. It is as good as new and does its work nicely. Don't think anyone could make a mistake in buying a Home Comfort Range. Very truly yours,
 GEORGE T. WILSON,
 Sand Hill, Lewis county, Ky.

Wrought Iron Range Co., St. Louis, Mo.
 Gentlemen—We have been using one of your ranges for about twenty years and during that period it has been in constant use.

My mother used the range about fourteen years of this time and I have used it for about seven years. It is in good order now and cooks as well as it did when new. The water tank is also a great feature.

We are well pleased with your range and recommend it to the public. Very respectfully,
 Dr. L. H. LONG,
 Northfork, Ky.

This is to certify that I have been using a Home Comfort Range for the last twelve years. In that time my house was burned down and the range fell into the cellar and layed there for twenty-four hours redhot. The range is in use today as good as new. The reservoir and brackets it rests on were the only things that warped, and the company replaced them free of charge.
 ELISHA MORAN,

THANKFUL

To my many friends and the public generally who have in the past extended to me such a liberal share of their patronage, which has helped so materially in making my business career in Maysville such a success: I want to assure all that I fully appreciate what they have done for me, and promise that I shall, by renewed efforts, endeavor to retain the confidence of the public by pursuing the same course of fair dealing and polite attention in the future as in the past and selling the very best goods at the most reasonable prices.

My stock is now the largest and most varied it has ever been my pleasure to offer to the public, consisting of every article in the Staple and Fancy Grocery line. These goods are fresh and new and of the very best quality. My last shipment of New Crop Open Kettle Molasses is now in and they are strictly fancy, and in spite of the fact that prices on these goods have materially advanced I am still selling them at the very low price of 50c per gallon. My stock of CANNED GOODS is unusually large and the quality of the very best.

The demand for PERFECT FLOUR is rapidly growing because it is beyond a doubt the very best Flour sold in Maysville or that can be made. It has no superior anywhere.

The run on my fine Blended Coffees has been enormous and is constantly increasing. I am still selling these fine goods at 15c, 20c and 25c per pound, and if you want a strictly fancy high grade Mocha and Java, the finest that can be produced, don't fail to call for the famous "Barrington Hall," steel cut, sold only in one-pound airtight tins at 35c per pound. A fresh supply of fall catch mackerel just in. If you want something extra try one of my fancy Blister Mackerel, heads and tails off.

A big invoice of very fine Premium Chinaware just in, a sample of which may be seen in my warehouse window. These goods I give to my CASH customers in redeeming tickets given out with their cash purchases. Until further notice DOUBLE TICKETS will be given with each cash purchase on SATURDAYS. By taking advantage of this proposition the purchaser will very soon accumulate enough tickets to secure a fine set of china FREE OF COST.

I buy strictly fancy Table Butter, Fresh Eggs and Country Produce generally, for which I pay cash or trade at lowest cash prices. I want everyone to come and see me; always welcome. If you don't want to buy it will be a pleasure for me to show you the nicest, the cleanest and the best kept store in Northeastern Kentucky. Thanking all again, I am most sincerely,

Held Up and Separated From Their Money

This hold-up, however, is novel, in that it is with the consent and connivance of the party held up. It takes two to make a trade, you know. We, as party of the first part, have personally visited the world's furniture mart and with great patience and care examined the lines of the largest factories and selected their newest styles and finishes and by means of the price obtained for "Quantity Purchases" enabled to offer you the greatest values in the Ohio Valley. You, as party of the second part, visit our sample rooms, examine the new styles, consider the prices, and, if you wish, make a purchase. It takes two to make a trade. We feel assured that you do not

Fear Judgment

When that judgment is your own. You have lived long enough to know a rich, rare bargain when you see it. Usually in bargain sales the value or service is cut with the price. For instance, the article is either shopworn, out of style or out of season; but not so in this sale—new goods, new styles, and yet bargain prices. We simply got a good thing and are willing to divide. The following adjectives aptly describe the bargains that we offer you in this new stock of Furniture:

Rich, Rare, Enticing, Attractive, Conservative

Rich in appearance, Rare in design, Enticing in finish, Attractive in symmetry and Conservative in price. What more could you wish? A visit to our sample rooms is a pleasure as well as an education.

them strong and robust

Rapid growth, overstudy, insufficient nourishment, convalescence after children's diseases, and run-down conditions make children thin and delicate and stop development.

Because Vinol contains all the medicinal, bone, tissue and body-building elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cod's livers, the useless oil eliminated and peptonate of iron added, it quickly restores robust health and children love it.

CONSTIPATION

"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an injection of warm water once every 24 hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascarets, and today I am a well man. During the nine years before I used Cascarets I suffered untold misery with internal piles. Thanks to you I am free from all that this morning. You can use this in behalf of suffering humanity."

OUR PRIDE IS IN THE
WORK HARNESS

Department of our store. By giving special attention to the most minute details we turn out Harness whose longevity rivals that of the Deacon's wonderful one-horse shay, which, as you all know, was so wonderfully constructed that it did not wear out in any one particular place, but, after being used for one hundred years to the minute, went to pieces all at once. Our workmen, being skilled at their work, know, as did the Deacon, that "Tis mighty plain that the weakest place must stand the strainin', 'n the way t' fix it, uz I maintain is only jes' to make that place uz strong uz the rest." We can give you the names of some of our customers to whom we sold work harness when we first went into business, and which is still as good as new. Do you not think this is full value received for every cent invested?

Not a drop of Alcohol

Doctors prescribe very little, if any, alcohol these days. They prefer strong tonics and alternatives. This is all in keeping with modern medical science. It explains why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is now made entirely free from alcohol. Ask your doctor. We have no secrets! We publish J. C. Ayer Co., the formula of all our preparations. Lowell, Mass.

GREAT OLD ENGLISH MANSION

Raby Castle Has Figured in History
Since Fourteenth Century.

Raby is one of the finest castellated mansions in England, and except that a part of the south front is an addition by Inigo Jones, the edifice retains most of its ancient character. It was built by John de Neville at the end of the fourteenth century and was the home of the Nevilles until their undoing came with the "Rising of the north."

Several hundred followers of the house of Neville used to gather in the great hall at Raby, and in the same hall the gentlemen of the north met in council and laid plans for reinstating the old religion. Charles I. twice visited Raby on his way to Scotland, and when Sir Harry Vane on one occasion disparagingly alluded to the castle as a hillock of stone the king retorted that he had not such another hillock in his realm.

A noticeable feature at Raby is the unique carriage way, which passes through the lower hall. It was a quaint idea on the part of the former owner of Raby to wish to drive his coach and four right through the castle and alight in the middle of the hall, but it is a pity that in order to gratify it he should have destroyed the baroque and several fine windows. Some of the tenants on the estate have from father to son held their farms from the time of the Nevilles, and one family possesses an original lease in Latin dating from the reign of Edward VI.

According to Dr. Robert Hutchinson, of London, if at any time meat is not available, bread, sugar and eggs will make "a very respectable support for the body." Sugar is an exceedingly valuable article of food as a source of energy, the unfortunate thing about it being that it contains no nitrogenous matter. Bread, however, does contain some, hence it balances up well when combined with sugar. In times of scarcity of food, bread and molasses is not a half bad diet—at least, it can be relied on to keep the body up to a fair state of efficiency.

Professional Secrecy.

Twenty or 30 years ago Dr. Meigs and his old mare Peggy, were familiar figures in Derby Line, Vt., and the surrounding country.

The doctor was very brusque in manner, and disliked being questioned concerning his patients.

One day a farmer was taken sick and Dr. M. sent for. When returning from his call, one of the neighbors anxious to know the man's condition, hailed the doctor and the physician pulled up.

"What ails Mr. Smith?"
"He's sick, a long Peggy."

THREE EPOCHS IN A WOMAN'S LIFE

MRS. ELVA BARBER EDWARDS

There are three critical stages in a woman's life which leave their mark in her career. The first of these stages is womanhood, or the change from a care free girl to budding womanhood. The second is motherhood, and the third is Change of Life.

Perils surround each of these stages, and most of the misery that comes to women through ill health dates from one or another of these important crises.
Women should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs has carried thousands of young girls over the critical period of puberty, has prepared mothers for childbirth, and in later years carried them safely through the change of life more successfully than any other remedy in the world. Thousands of testimonials from grateful persons, two of which are here published, substantiate this fact beyond contradiction.

Mrs. George Walters of Woodlawn, Ill. writes:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"I feel it my duty to tell you of the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me in preparing for childbirth. After suffering and losing my children a friend advised me to try your valuable medicine, and the result was that I had very little inconvenience, a quick recovery and as healthy a child as can be found anywhere. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a blessing to all expectant mothers."

Mrs. Elva Barber Edwards of Cathlamet, Wash., writes:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"I want to tell you how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound carried me through the critical period of the Change of Life without any trouble whatever, also cured me of a very severe female weakness. I cannot say enough in praise of what your medicine has done for me."

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Walters and Mrs. Edwards it will do for other women in their condition. Every suffering woman in the United States is asked to accept the following invitation. It is free, will bring you health and may save your life.
Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and helpful.

During its long record of more than thirty years its long list of actual cures, entitles Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to the respect and confidence of every fair minded person.

CARNATION LEAGUE

Wearing of President McKinley's Favorite Flower Yesterday

Pink carnations were pinned to the coats of many Maysvillians yesterday. It was the 64th birthday anniversary of the martyred President. The pink carnation was his favorite flower. The custom of wearing a carnation on his birthday anniversary was originated five years ago by L. G. Reynolds of Dayton, O., an ardent admirer of the late President. The custom spread throughout the country, resulting in the organization of the Carnation League of America, devoted to keeping forever green the memory of President McKinley.

So general has the custom become that florists each year make advance preparations for a large stock of pink carnations, and seldom is the supply greater than the demand.

Thousands upon thousands of the pretty flowers this year offered up their fragrance as incense to the memory of the Chief Executive who sleeps in Canton.

WOMEN'S WOES.

Maysville Women are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Reach a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. J. B. Gibson of 22 East Fourth street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"The prompt and thorough action of Doan's Kidney Pills should recommend them to everyone suffering from backache or kidney troubles. I have known the value of this remedy for several years. Its use in my case proved to me that it is a reliable kidney cure and cannot be excelled for backache or weakness of the kidneys. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills before and I should advise every sufferer to get a supply and try them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-McIlburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
